YELLOWHAMMER FUND’S NOTICE TO THE COURT

On March 6, 2025, the Court filed a notice asking if Plaintiff Yellowhammer Fund would like to move to file any declarations under seal. After consultation with the declarants, Plaintiff Yellowhammer Fund has decided not to file a motion to seal these declarations.

While safety and security are large concerns for the organization, both generally and throughout the course of the litigation, the declarants feel they limited the information they shared in these declarations accordingly and believe the information that some people may find confidential is already in the public domain.
